Editor's Column

Here it is the first of the month and again I am getting the newsletter out to everyone. The days left until the reunion are getting fewer and fewer. So if you are waiting until the last minute you are there now. The deadline is October 3rd.

My daughter, Carlie, surprised me with a web page of my own. A smart ass remark came along with it about moving into at least the 20th century. My first thought was that I am in the 20th century. I was a little shocked to learn that we are in the 21st century. When did that happen?

The local newspaper published an old photo which brought home just how long I have been practicing law which also emphasizes how long it has been since we all served in Vietnam. Hotel Company arrived in Vietnam April of 1966 and left in 1971. Depending upon your own arrival date it is somewhere between 44 and 49 years. That means next year is the 50 year mark for some of us. Since none of us are actually getting any younger, despite how we feel, I urge you to take advantage of the opportunity to get together at the reunion while you can.

I hope to see everyone in Nashville.
